Van Drunen Farms can also customize a product for your specific application and processing requirements.

Freeze-dried Useful in candy fillings, dessert and bakery mixes, breakfast cereals and in any application where fresh fruit flavor and piece identity is desired. Processing options include: whole pieces, slices, dices and powders.

Drum-dried Drum-dried flakes and powders are well-suited for fillings, sauces, instant foods, beverages, and to add fruit flavor and sweetness without added particulate.

Air-dried Best used in cooked products, snack mixes and bakery mixes. Available in diced pieces and powders.

Infused Suitable for hot and cold cereals, bakery mixes, ice cream add-ins, pastry fillings and snack mixes. Whole fruit pieces, as well as some sliced or diced options are available.
